

Identifying and understanding your rescue

In the UK our wild bird population includes feral pigeons (rock doves), collared doves, wood pigeons, stock doves (stock pigeons) and turtle doves. Their temperament, habitat and their natural diet can differ, so it will help if you can determine what sort of bird you have. These pages should help you do that.

Comparing Hatchlings and Nestlings

Comparing Fledglings and Juveniles

Comparing Adult Birds

The Turtle Dove

If you have rescued a baby bird that is not a pigeon this excellent page will help you identify it.